

The Sting

A Spelling Bee for Grown-Ups

Didn't make it to the finals in your middle school spelling bee?

Think the accounting department gives you no respect?

Want to show off your ability to spell cymotrichous (the 2011 National Spelling Bee's winning word) without breaking a sweat?

Take your shot:

Join Domus for our third annual Adult Spelling Bee.

Beat the pants off those know-it-alls down the hall while raising money for literacy efforts so disadvantaged kids can learn to read. Form a work or neighborhood team, or pull together your smarty-pants friends--but make sure they're good spellers since the 3 of you spell each word as a team. Bring your A-game and a creative costume, or at least matching t-shirts or neckties, for Pete's sake...you're gonna be on TV.

Register now to claim your spot. Encourage your friends, your boss, or even your mom to come see you triumph. It's for charity.

Food, fun, foes, and phonetics. It's on.
