Domus Executive Director Michael Duggan Receives Prestigious FBI Award

Stamford, CT – Domus Kids, Inc., a community-based, multi-service nonprofit serving 1,000 young people, is proud to announce that executive director Michael Duggan has received the Director's Community Leadership Award for 2021 from the Federal Bureau of Investigations. He was selected for the honor by the leadership of the FBI New Haven Field Office and is 2021's sole recipient.

Since 1990, the Director's Community Leadership Awards has been the principal means for the FBI to publicly recognize achievements of individuals and organizations that make extraordinary contributions to education and the prevention of crime and violence in their communities. Each field office selects an individual or organization for the award.

"This award honors organizations and individuals doing the hard work of improving their communities," said Charles Grady, FBI New Haven Field Office Public Affairs Specialist. "In recognizing Mike for his accomplishments, we also recognize the organization as a whole and the remarkable things they do in the community in partnership with local law enforcement.

We value our relationships with nonprofits such as Domus: Our robust community outreach to these partners improves the quality of life for Connecticut residents."

Awardee Mike Duggan, a longtime Guilford resident, stated, "I'm honored to receive this recognition of the work Domus has done for so many years. I've found the FBI team here in Connecticut to be openminded and respectful in their approach to youth-police relationships. I appreciate their thought leadership on ways to keep young people safe in our communities."
